1. Galatians 5:22-23 says, "But the fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law." Have you seen this student demonstrate the fruits of the spirit? If so, how?
2. Philippians 2:3-4 says, "Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves. Each of you should look not to your own interests but also to the interests of others." Realizing this is a high calling for all of those who call Jesus their Savior, have you seen this student demonstrate kindness and humility? If so, how and when?
3. I Corinthians 6:18-20 says, "Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore, honor God with your body." Do you see this student demonstrating this type of self control?
4. Ephesians 6:1-3 says, "Children, obey your parents in the Lord for this is right. Honor your father and mother – which is the first commandment with a promise – that it may go well and that you may enjoy long life on the earth." Do you see this student respecting and honoring their parents?
